The DIRECTIONS of this 1975-76 school year are dynamic at Riverside.

Just the building gives directions in a subtle way, because it is a place provided for people to gather and take part in activities. It is somewhere to go to meet people of different backgrounds, who throw off influences; who give directions.

Activities are opportunities to meet with friends, in and out of school, and gain experiences that shape our personalities.

This Bicentennial heads us toward another two hundred years of success. A mock election convention at RHS shows the direction of America's future leaders. Even in the community, with the Country Club bridge unusable, people are forced to take a different direction in such a small way as travel. Heading on to the 1976-77 school year at RHS itself takes a new direction with the sophistication of becoming Riverside Senior High School upon the completion of the new middle school.

At twelve years of age, the beginning and confused seventh grader may feel quite mature, yet it is only the start of growth and understanding.

Lectures and teachers, associates and films, textbooks and extra-curricular pleasures constantly give ideals, mannerisms and ways in which to change our personalities to be shy, exhuberant, impatient or frustrated. These occasions each have a way of changing and shaping our views on religion, politics, marriage and success. Our future lies within these very things. Our possible failure or hopeful success depends on the images that each of us take from life to use and mold into an expression all our own.

DIRECTIONS are given in many different forms:

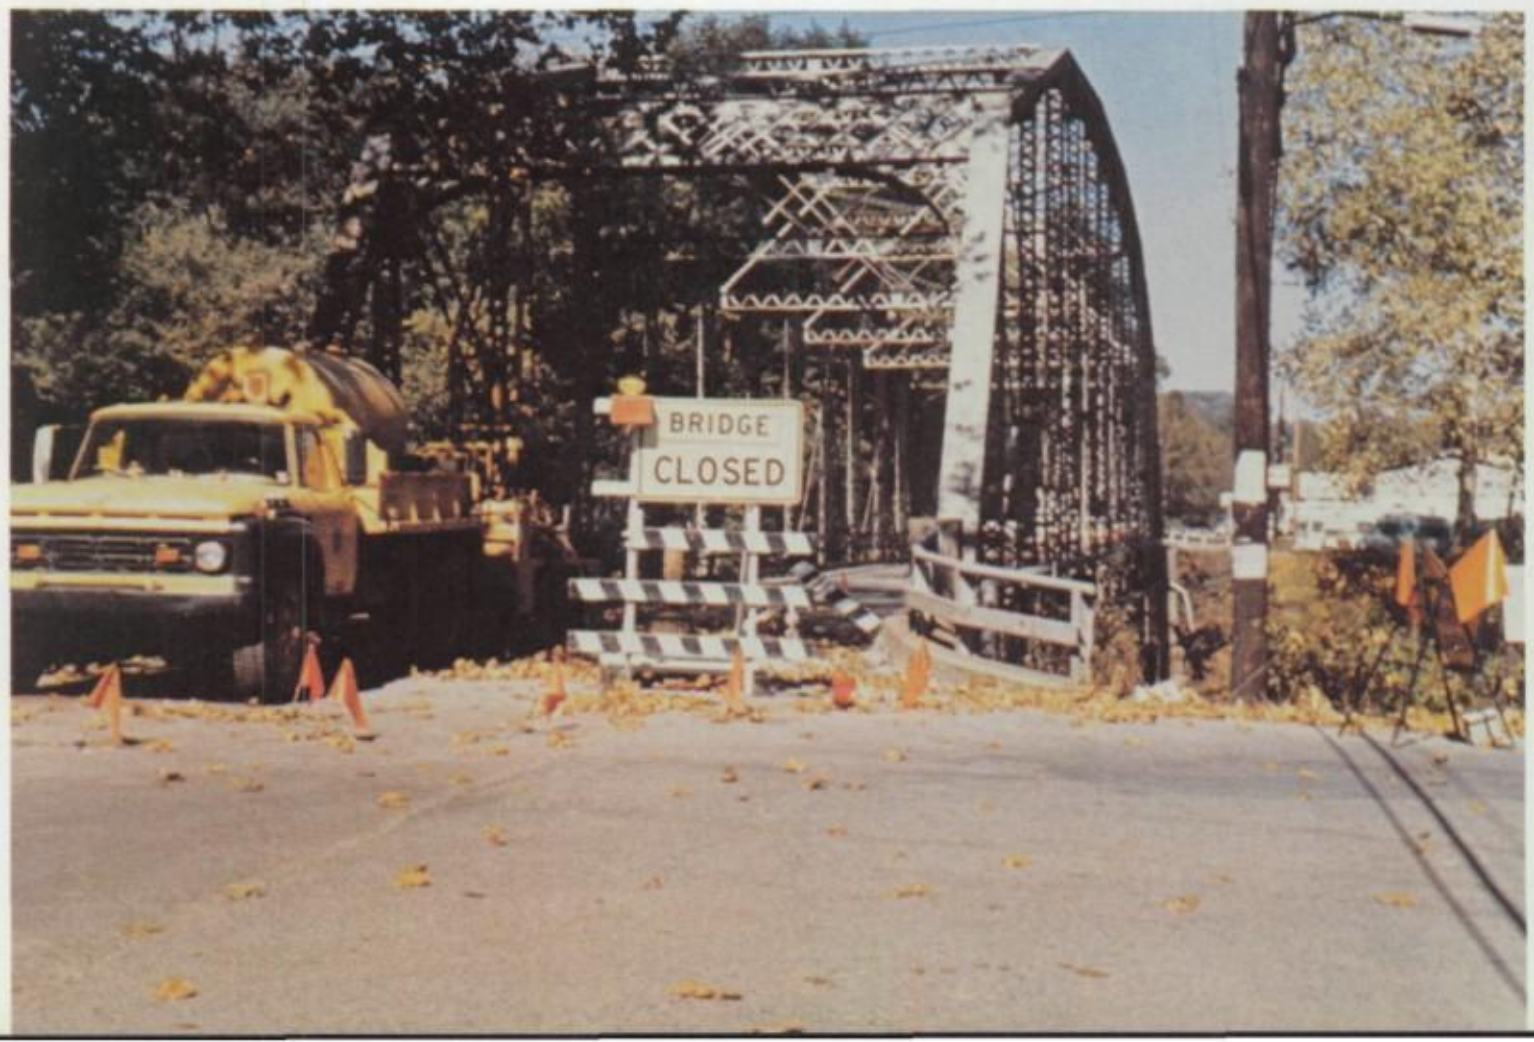
. . . a creek

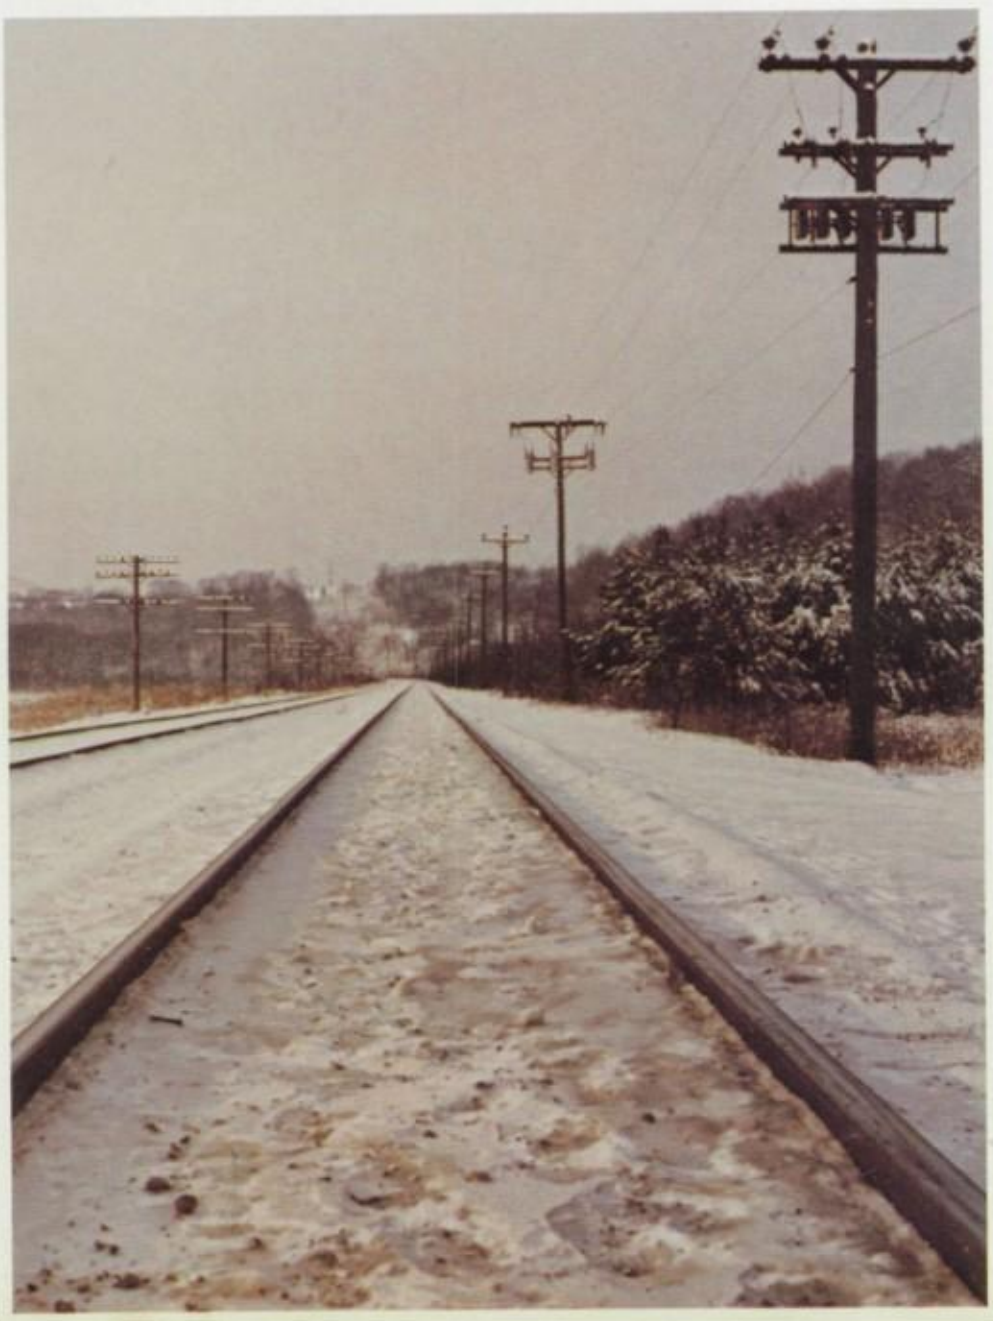
. . . a bridge

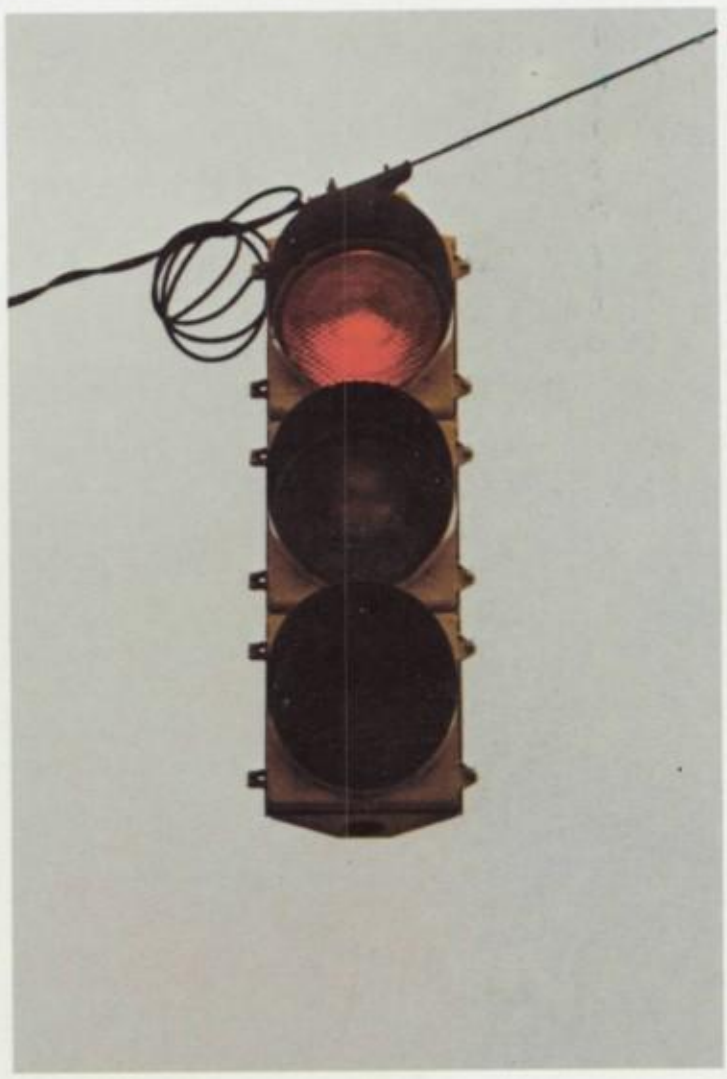
. . . a stoplight

. . . railroad tracks

. . . a traffic sign.







POLICE
NORTH SEWICKLEY TOWNSHIP

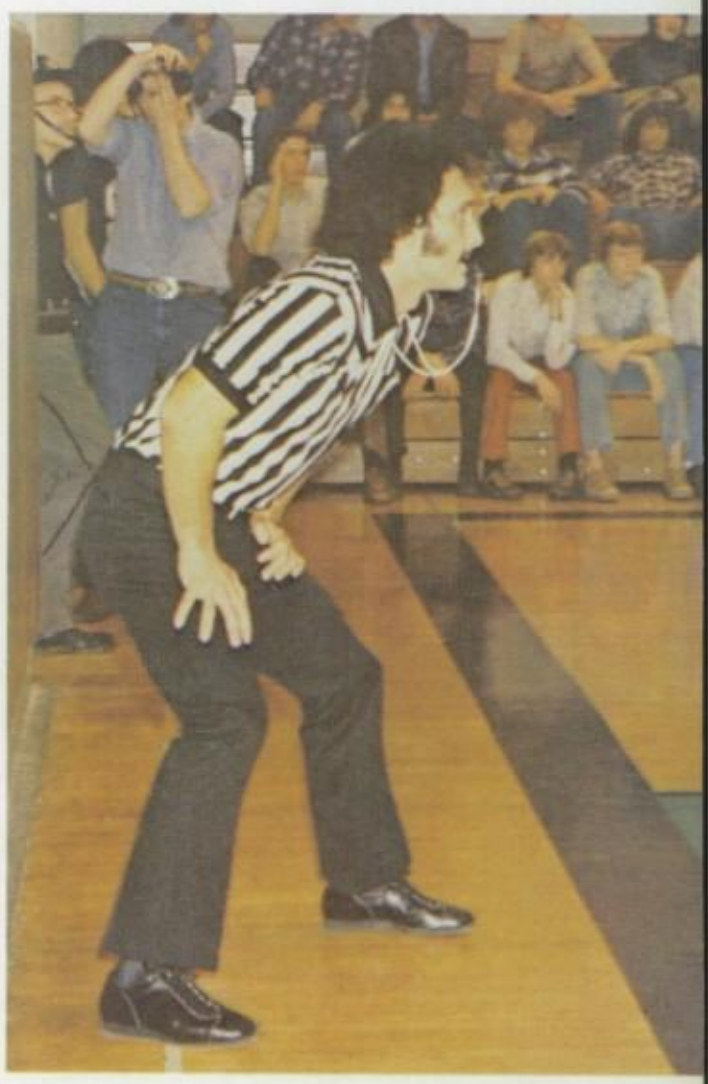
on the street . . .

and private wonderlands . . .

are places that inspire us and give us DIRECTIONS.



People play a large part in giving us DIRECTIONS:

. . . from parents

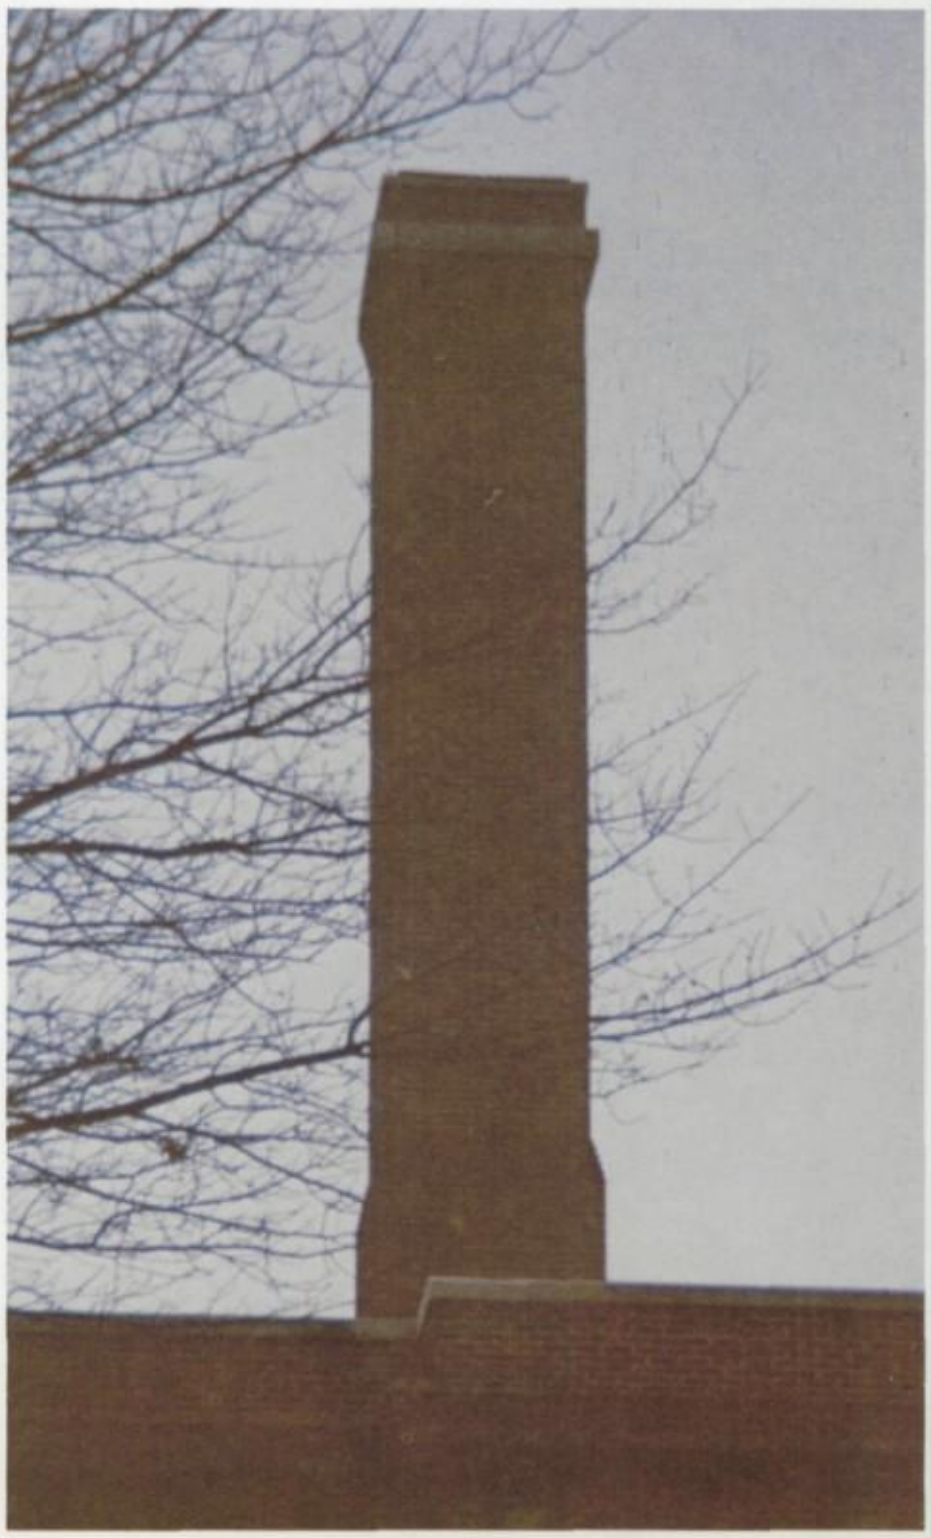
. . . to teachers

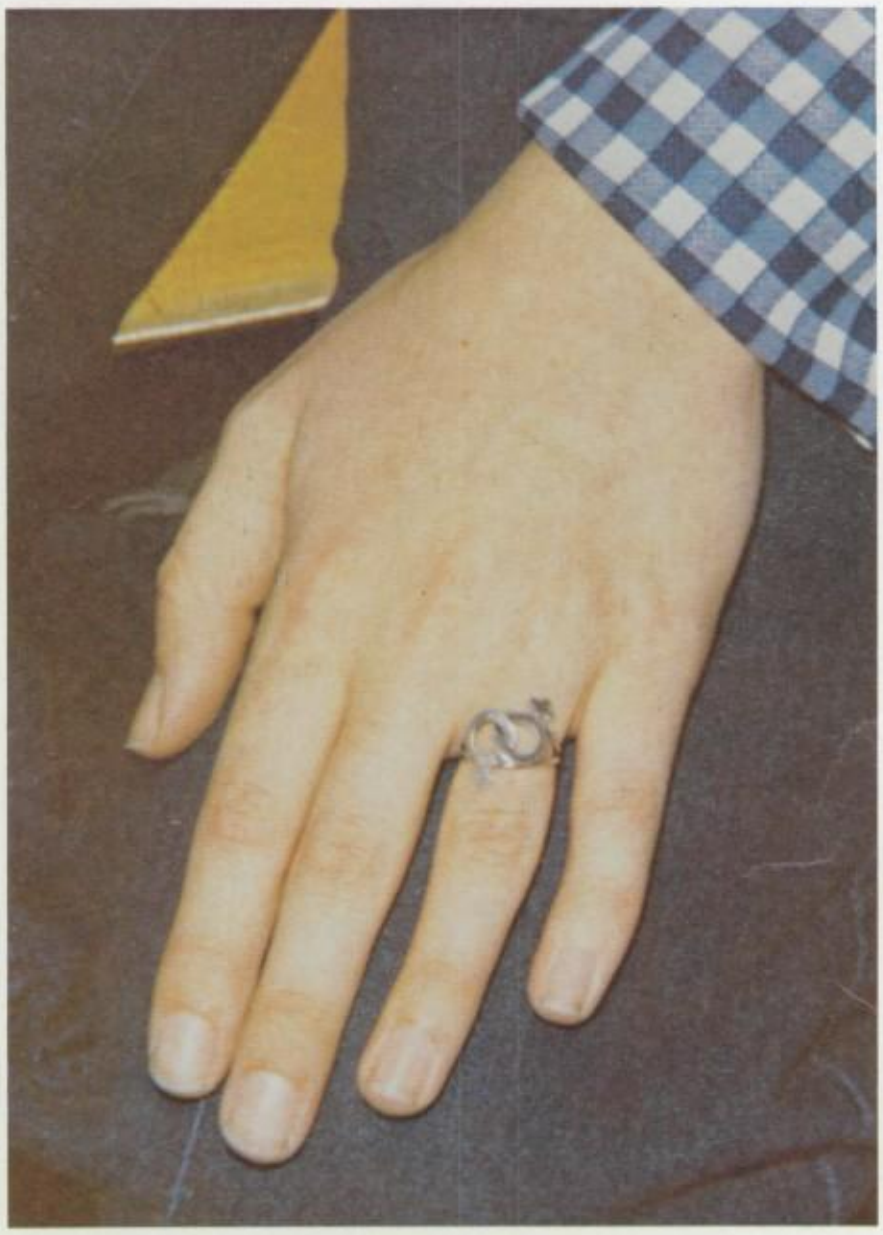
. . . to companions

. . . to professionals

. . . to a referee.

Wma A Panaccione
Oct 1976





Without DIRECTIONS we could not

. . . grow old gracefully

. . . be organized

. . . have personal rights

. . . get along with others

. . . or survive in our environment.

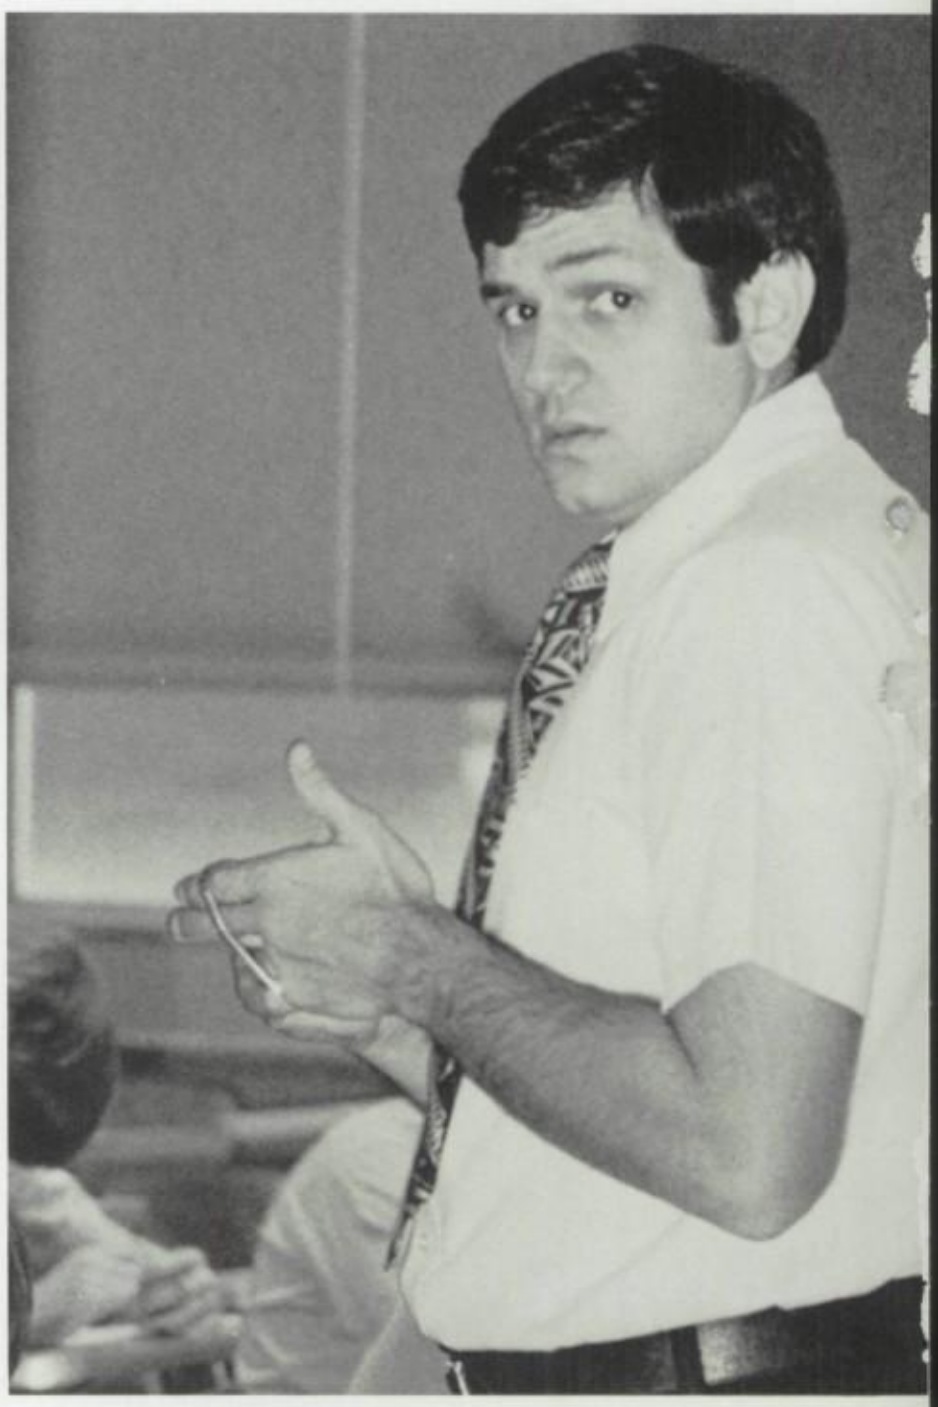
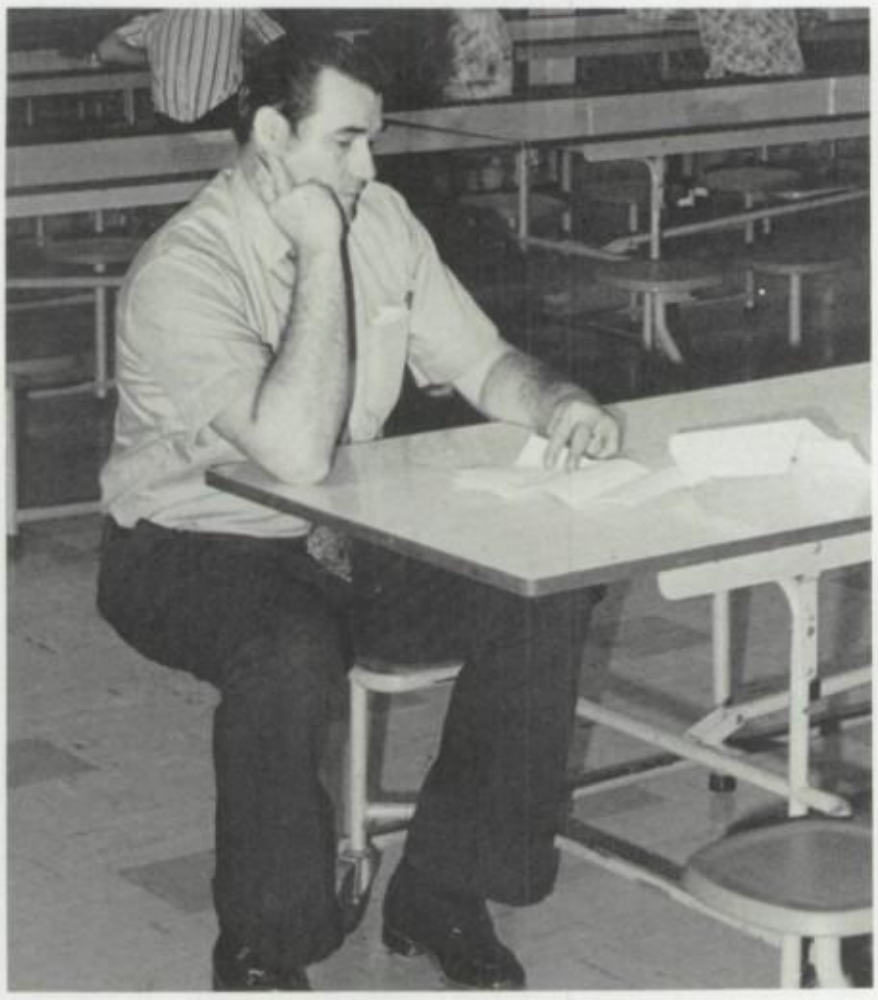
15 Now I would remind you, brethren, in what terms I preached to you the gospel, which you received, in which you stand, by which you are saved, if you hold it fast—unless you believed in vain.





The Staff gives us
directions that guide us

...through meetings,
...and learning experiences,
...with clean surroundings,
...and understanding,
...toward maturity.

All adventures arrive at an end. Dreaming is enacted by doing, with each act becoming a challenge which results in victory or defeat. Life meets the line by death.

Two distinctive individuals have left students and faculty of Riverside High School with exceptional memories—exceptional because no two people with their character, mannerisms or ideals will journey this way again.

Kathryn Smith Born September 19,1945—Died June 25, 1975.

Mrs. Kathryn Smith and Mr. Edward Ellenich put all their effort into living. They did their utmost with the circumstances given to them, generously handing out the hard-core virtues and traits which made up their all.

Now all that remains are memories and lessons. We can learn from them, not only the facts and figures they taught in their classes, but also from their mistakes and successes to produce a fuller, richer way in which to live. For that, in our hearts, we must thank them.

Edward Ellenich Born August 2, 1936—Died August 5, 1975

School Board-foundation of Riverside.

The School Board provides the direction for the progress of Riverside. Beginning with the election of new members, the year advances quickly with new ideas. While important decisions are being made, the Middle School is rapidly nearing completion. The School Board promotes the welfare of Riverside through quality education and the betterment of the school.

While visiting RHS, School Board members, Mr. Fornataro, Mr. Bollinger, and Mr. Zona, relax in the lobby before a meeting.

Administration activates Riverside's progress.

Riverside worked effectively and efficiently under the organization of its five man administration. Their aim was to widen the educational realm of RHS by creating new courses, administering new rules and introducing new aspects of life through assemblies and activities.

Through the use of the universal element of leadership, students were led forward in maturity by the actions of the administration.

Efficiency, firmness, leadership and decisiveness were qualities of the RHS administration that contributed directions.

A smile is another teaching tactic.

Interested Riverside teachers presented their material to classes with flair, discernment and individuality. They strived for student participation, and when it came to wittiness they were always one step ahead of the student.

As models of friendliness, they expended it towards others in class and in the faculty lounge. As chaperones, faculty worked with students to make 1975-76 events as exciting as possible. Students livened teachers' lives as they in turn contributed to students', guiding them towards maturity, developing their talent and giving them directions.

Direction of

...Leadership,
...Talent,
...and Spirit,

are virtues that make the Seniors unique.

Seniors of '76 display unity by achievements.

We began our stay at Riverside as timid seventh graders, looking with awe at "the big, bad, seniors." The coming of twelfth grade reached far into the future . . . but here we stand, ready to graduate from Riverside. Because the years have passed by so quickly, our senior year became a time for recapturing past moments and praising our accomplishments as a class.

We seniors carried out the Mock Convention with the pride and enthusiasm of true seventy-sixers. Our class represented unity, enthusiasm and friendliness through these projects and many more.

With these rich moments we leave Riverside with both happiness and regret. Each of us will hold these memories and accomplishments in our hearts with great and lasting significance.

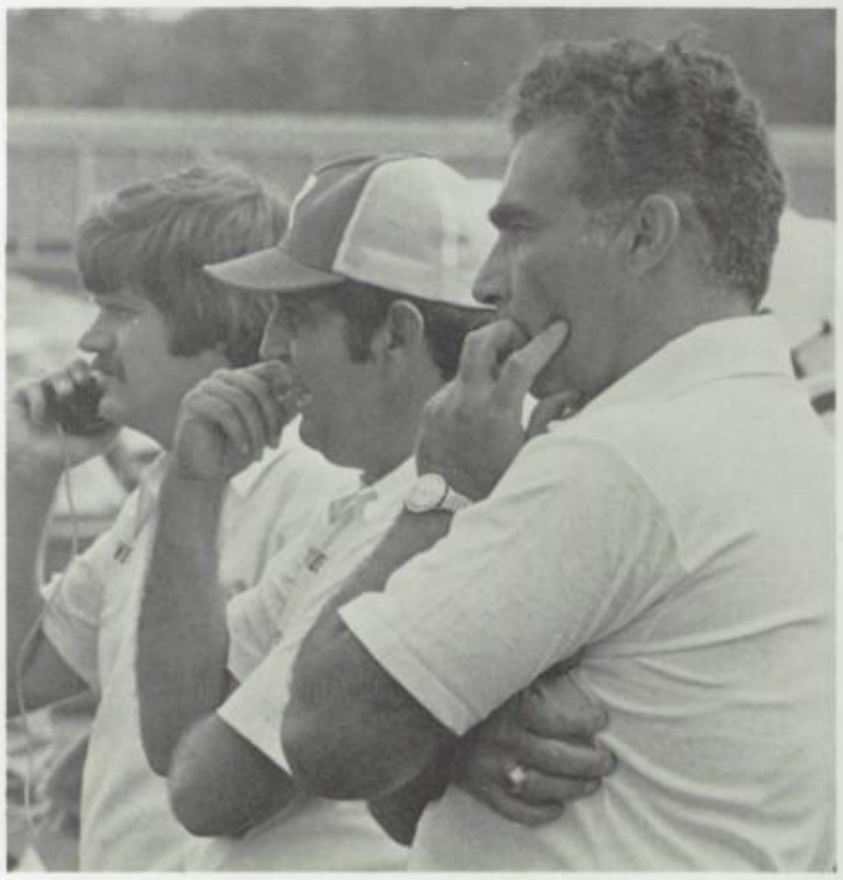
It's only the beginning . . .

. . . was the motto for the 1975 football team which summed up the team's feelings about the first winning season in the school's history. The direction of the football program at Riverside High School looks promising for the future because of the spirit, dedication, and pride the seniors have displayed during their years at Riverside. These qualities, instilled into them by Head Coach, Karl Florie, served as an inspiring example to the underclassmen to guide them in their future years at R.H.S. When asked, Coach Florie said, "These kids never lost faith, even when at times things looked bleak at Riverside. They turned out to be a top calibre team."

The numerous records set by the '75 Panthers in their first year in the Tri-County League was dramatic proof of how far the team had come on their road to success. Bill Robbins now holds the season scoring title at Riverside with 68 points; season rushing record with 485 yards; and all time scorer with 82 points. Rick Brown's career passing yardage was a record high for R.H.S. with 2,253 yards. He also threw for 18 touchdowns. The Panthers also outscored their opponents this year; 210 to 159.

Brilliant strategy by Coaches Whiting, Florie, and Costa played an important part in each game.



Judgement in the course of a game is often questioned; Bill Robbins and Dave Tillia grumble.

Excellent blocking enabled leading rusher, Bill Robbins to break through a gaping hole in the Panther line.

Fullback Bruce March powers for one of his long runs and valuable yardage.

Jimmy Brown exhibits fine form when punting the ball.

The passing arm of Rick Brown gave an added dimension to the Panther offense.

The 1975 Homecoming Court consists of Lisa Barry, Billie Sue Mohr, Coral Petrak–sceptor bearer, Patty McDonald–Queen, Pepi Wasilewski–crown bearer, Patty Crawford and Kris Daufen.

Patty reigns as Queen.

Riverside High School joined America's bicentennial celebrations with "A Salute to the Bicentennial" at Homecoming time.

In spite of the bad weather on September 27, spirits were not dampened and the Panthers gave a hard stuggle to Laurel ending in a final score of 21-6.

Climaxing the excitement was the announcement of the Homecoming Queen, Patty McDonald, at half time. Each court member was presented with a charm on behalf of the football team. Patty was also presented a dozen red roses by Student Council President, Frank LaGrotta.

Festivities continued in the early evening with a dance; music provided by "Sun-Kist" and sponsored by the Senior Class. Following the direction of the theme, the cafeteria was an array of red, white and blue which made it a memorable experience of the bicentennial year.

Dunebuggies added an unusual touch to the Homecoming Festivities.

Weather conditions made it necessary for Kris Daufen to don an umbrella.

The Fighting Fish—determined to win.

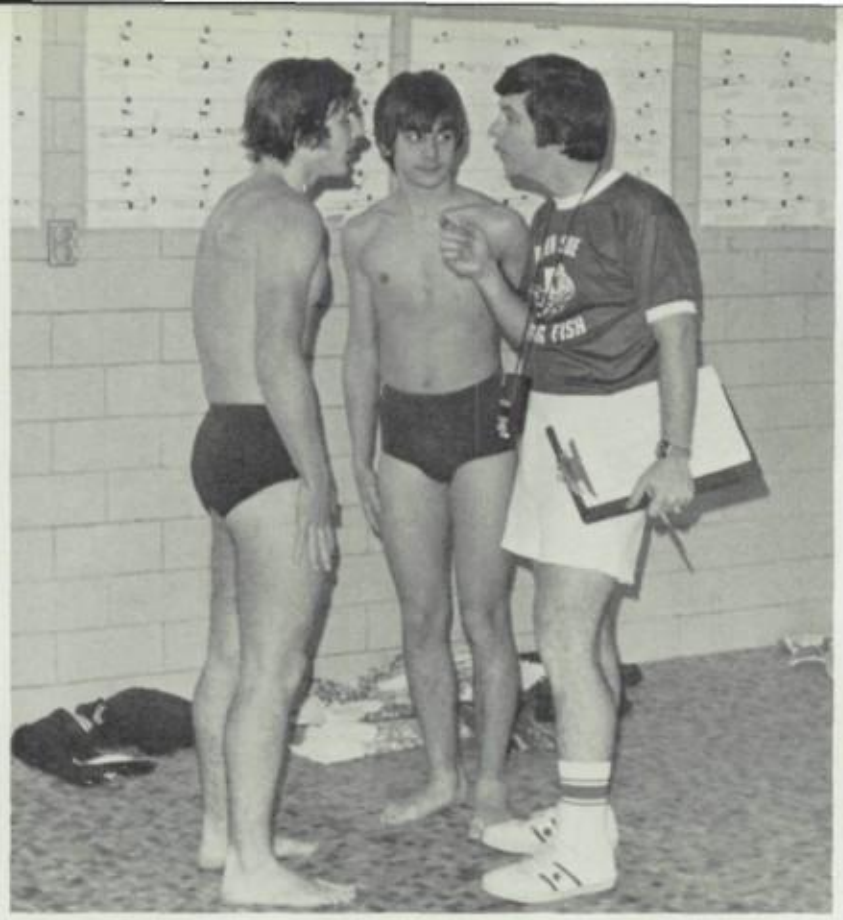
Coach Fogle started the season this year knowing he must build his team due to the loss of many outstanding swimmers last year. Despite the heavy graduation losses, the Fighting Fish have come through with a swimming 7-3 record for the season. Coach Fogle felt this was definitely an accomplishment with many young swimmers coming out for the first time. The Fighting Fish have four senior lettermen in their fourth year of swim team—Curt Crawford, Dave Grant, Terry Groth, and Robbie Richards. Mark Carbeau is the only sophomore letterman. The honor for the most vaulable swimmer of the year went to Curt Crawford at the swim banquet. All in all, it looks like a promising future for the Fighting Fish of Riverside.

With courage and determination, first year diver Steve Martin gained the needed skill to become a top diver.



Criticism and encouragement from Coach Fogle built the skill and morale of the swim team. Steve Martin, Mike Steiner.

The Pantherettes place fourth in Tri-County League

Placing fourth in the Tri-County League, the Riverside Pantherettes finish the 75-76 season with a 4-6 win-lose record. The girls started the season as a new team having only one returning letter woman, Diane McConahy. Diane added experience to the team, and took the Most Valuable Player Award with a sixteen point average. Next year looks to be a rewarding season with four returning starters giving their experienced directions.

A new direction was taken by the Green Marlins as a new coach–a male–Mr. Dennis Fogle, was introduced into the girl's swimming program. Coach Fogle was always found giving his team encouragement and moral support when needed. With the help of Assistant Coach Miss Denise Yanniello, Coach Fogle worked the girls to bring the team to near swimming perfection.

This season the Green Marlins broke six school records with outstanding swimmers in free-style relay, breast stroke, and the 100-yard free-style. Coach Fogle feels it was definitely a successful season ending with a 5-5 win-lose record.

Mr. Dennis Fogle and Miss Denise Yanniello provided training and encouragement for the Green Marlins.

1776 And All That

A scene from "1776 And All That" portrays how our forefathers might look upon the United States from their heavenly abode.

Six weeks of nightly hard work and cooperation are what make All-School Plays successful. So, that is what Director Gloria Wasilewski had her cast do.

Student Director Toni Schlemmer worked hand in hand with Mrs. Wasilewski to have the production polished for the nights of November 14 and 15.

Before opening night the Riverside High School Auditorium echoed with lines that George Washington might say as he looks upon the United States' present condition. Back stage it may have seemed like confusion yet each person had a place and part to make a crowning success of "1776 And All That."

Margaret Czar plays the "typical" gossipy housewife, detaining Toni Barry from her work.

Jim Gilleland thinks out his part while Mrs. Wasilewski places his wig securely on his head; another never-ending job of the director.

An angel from Heaven absolutely flattered by our country man's remarks; Bob Hazen and Patty McDonald.

No matter how perfect a production is, confidence must be instilled on opening night. Here, Mrs. Wasilewski approves Don Williams' lines as he recites them before Toni Schlemmer.

The Gymnasium was transformed into a "one night wonderland" of animated seaports and starry skies.

Couples were eloquently introduced by master and mistress of ceremonies, Pat Hill and Jan Lowry.

The working juniors could rest assured that Marla Novalesi would guard the gymnasium hallway from intruders trying to take a peek at '76 prom decorations.

Ron Bender makes final checks on the pond to assure no leaks on the gymnasium floor accompanied by John Cater and Jeff Magargee.

It was a long stretch for John Fischer and Tim Tirlia to put up the prom ceiling.

"An Evening in Venice" was a huge success due to months of hard work on the part of the Junior class.

The coronation brought suspense, then pleasure, as Becky Pasquale was crowned prom queen by the crown bearer, Lisa Alberth.

Couple entered an aura of romance as they stepped into the gym, which was lavishly decorated to resemble that romantic city on the sea, Venice. The authentic dock, with real water, greatly enhanced the atmosphere. The music was provided by "Suede" as couples danced away the hours.

The theme of the after-prom was "Happy Birthday, America." Couples were given the opportunity to play games, and numerous prizes were awarded. The cafeteria was a flourish of red, white, and blue; a giganic birthday cake dominated the scene.

The many hours of effort resulted in an evening of enjoyment.

Even chaperones and servers enjoyed the romance of "An Evening in Venice."

"Happy Birthday America" was the theme of the after-prom, that lifted everyone's spirits in the drowsy hours of the morning.

"And the band played on . . ."

Couple Becky Watkins and Dave Boots, co-chairpersons of the prom, took pleasure in the romantic entranceway of the prom.

Madame Chairman, Patty McDonald, sets the dignified manner at the onset of the mock election convention on April 8.

Mrs. Wasilewski and Mr. Walker, reviewing the speakers, remark on keynote speaker, Czarnecki's address.

Convention '76 came alive April 8 and 9.

After six months of planning and anticipation the 1976 RHS Mock Election Convention commenced April 8 and 9.

Three election years ago Mr. Dale Walker introduced a Democratic Mock Election Convention to Riverside students. The students of 1968 greeted the idea with earnestness. Mr. Walker's ideas and plans progressed until 1976 to result in a great demonstration of mock politics.

Voting for a presidential candidate was the main event of the two day rally, but speeches, demonstrations and cheers preceeded the important decision making. The sergeants of arms kept busy sweeping up the flows of confetti thrown from the stands. Demonstrations and cheers revealed the true '76 spirit and dedication of the delegates to candidates Jerry Brown, Jimmy Carter, "Scoop" Jackson, and the others.

It has only been through Mr. Walker's determined strides to create something worthwhile and educational that produced a dignified, yet sensational experience. The result of Convention '76— great speakers, and enthralled crowd and the nomination of Jimmy Carter for President.

Even though he was removed from the convention, John Fisher was one speaker that enthralled the convention delegates.

The convention was only a success due to the full participation, excitement and devotion of the delegates to their candidates.

Band members, forming the state of North Carolina, stimulated the emotions of the delegates, thereby playing an important part in the fervor of the convention.

There was a strong leaning on Uncle Sam (Karen Chilton) for hopeful voting support from Wisconsin by assistant chairman of California, Rick Brown.

Now, until 1980, Riverside's hallways will only echo with the memories of the Democratic Mock Election Convention.

EVERY minute of the convention was taped by Mr. Kaufman's audio-visual media for future conventioneers to study.

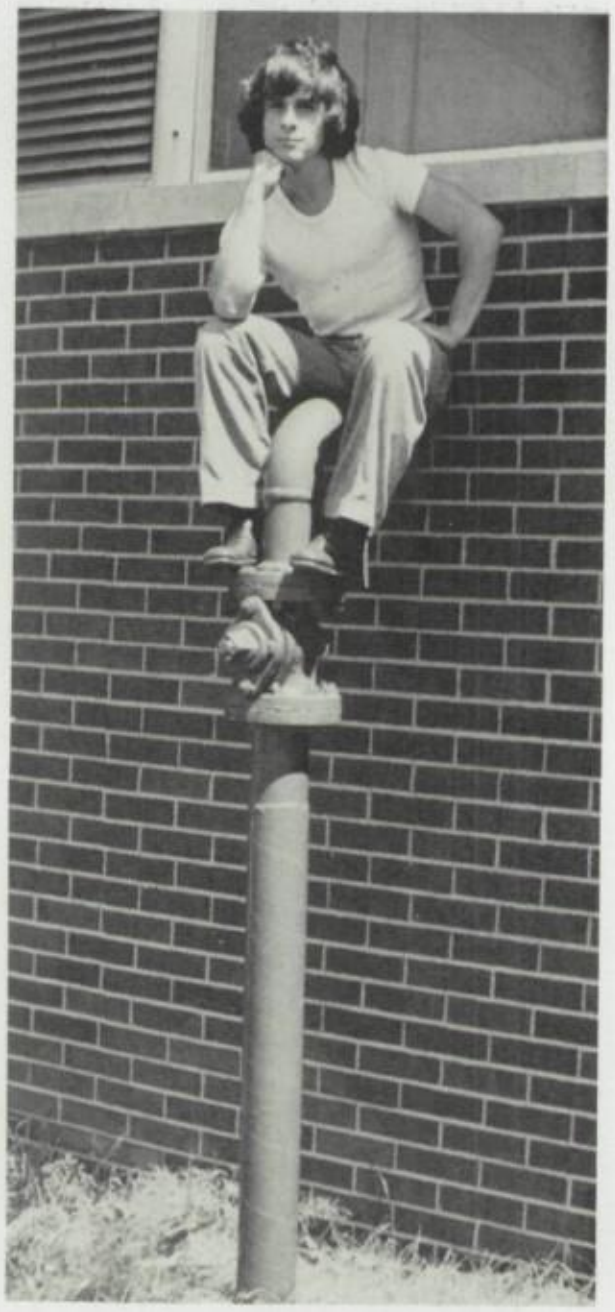
Though friendship is important for development as a full person . . .



. . .each Senior's individualism directs his life.

Riverside provides the foundation on which every student may build his future.
